Plaintiff in Pro Persona

STIPULATION AND ORDER MODIFYING CUSTODY

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the parties that Custody of the parties' minor child, _____, shall be as follows:

1. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor child, _____, d.o.b. 6/10/1996, with Plaintiff having physical custody during the school year from one week prior to school commencing until one week after school concludes.

2. That Defendant shall exercise parenting time on the second and fourth weekend of each month, or as the parties may mutually agree and arrange.

3. That commencing one week after school concluded, Defendant shall have primary physical custody of the minor child until one week prior to school beginning again in the fall. During this time, Plaintiff shall exercise parenting time on the first and third weekend each month, or as the parties mutually agree and arrange.

4. That holidays and school breaks shall be divided between the parties as previously established or as they may mutually agree and arrange.

5. That the parties shall meet half-way between both homes for all parenting time.

6. Defendant shall receive a 50% retroactive abatement of the child support obligation after the minor child spends 6 consecutive overnight periods.

7. There shall be a prompt written notification to the Friend of the Court at the conclusion of the parenting time stating the dates claimed for such credit. Parenting time abatements must be claimed by the non-custodial parent and must be submitted in writing to the Friend of the Court for processing within 60-days of the date they are accrued or the Friend of the Court will not assist a litigant in the processing of those claims.

8. That child support and childcare expenses be reviewed by the Friend of the Court. Should either party have a significant change in income, child support and child care expenses shall be adjusted as mutually agreed by the parties through a written agreement, signed by both parties. Should the parties not agree to an adjusted amount, child support and child care expenses shall be re-evaluated by the Friend of the Court.

9. All other terms, agreements and conditions not otherwise affected by this Order shall remain in full force and effect.
